CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

AND NOW, this 4th day of March, 2005, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. Local Rule LR 16.1. The above-captioned civil action is hereby placed under Local Rule LR 16.1 of this court.
All provisions of the Rule will be strictly enforced.

2. Settlement Negotiations. Counsel for the parties shall confer with their clients before all case management, status or pretrial conferences to obtain authority to participate in settlement negotiations conducted by the court. Counsel are encouraged to appear with their individual clients or with principals of corporate or other clients at all such conferences or to instruct such clients or principals to be available by telephone at the time of such conferences to facilitate settlement negotiations.

3. Joinder of Additional Parties. Any additional parties are to be joined on or before June 3, 2005.

4. Pretrial Procedures. Compliance with the provisions of Local Rule LR 16.1 shall be completed as follows:

(a) The parties shall complete discovery on or before December 9, 2005. For purposes of this paragraph 4(a), the term "discovery" shall include all methods of discovery referred to in Fed.R.Civ.P. 26(a). Interrogatories to parties pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 33, requests for production of documents and things pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 34, and requests for admission pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 36 shall be served at least 30 days prior to December 9, 2005.

(b) On or before December 30, 2005, any party may file a motion for summary judgment which shall be accompanied by a supporting brief, and such affidavits and other supporting documentation as may be appropriate. Any responding party may file an opposing brief, together with such affidavits and opposing documents as may be appropriate on or before January 20, 2006. No further briefs or materials supporting or opposing a motion for summary judgment shall be filed without leave of court. Any party failing to respond to a motion for summary judgment shall be deemed not to oppose the motion.

The brief in support of a motion for summary judgment shall begin with a section entitled "Movant's Statement of Undisputed Material Facts." The statement shall contain a concise itemization of material facts over which the movant contends that no dispute exists. The facts shall be numbered and appear in a form similar to a plaintiff's complaint. At the conclusion of each fact, movant shall refer, with particularity, to those portions of the record upon which movant relies.

The brief in opposition to a motion for summary judgment shall begin with a section entitled "Response to Movant's Statement of Undisputed Material Facts." The Response shall answer each of the numbered averments of fact set forth in the movant's statement and shall state whether the movant's averment of fact is "admitted" or "disputed." If disputed, the respondent shall state a concise counter statement of the matter disputed. At the conclusion of each counter statement, respondent shall refer, with particularity, to those portions of the record upon which respondent relies. For example,

(5) Admitted.

(6) Disputed. On the contrary . . . (See plaintiff's deposition of November 1, 1992, at Page 7, lines 12-14)"

All material facts set forth in the Movant's Statement of Undisputed Material Facts shall be deemed admitted for the purpose of summary judgment unless specifically controverted as set forth herein. All parties shall attach to their Statements of Undisputed Material Fact and Response thereto, copies of the documents or portions of the record which support their respective positions.

(c) Plaintiff's pretrial narrative statement shall be filed on or before February 10, 2006. Defendants' pretrial narrative statements shall be filed on or before March 3, 2006. Plaintiff's pretrial narrative statement shall comply with Local Rule LR 16.1.4.A.1-6. Defendants' pretrial narrative statements shall comply with Local Rule LR 16.1.4.B.1-6.

5. Pretrial Conference. A PRETRIAL CONFERENCE is scheduled at 4:30 p.m. on April 3, 2006, Room 605, United States Courthouse, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15219.

6. Pretrial Stipulation. After the pretrial conference, counsel for the parties may be ordered by the court to meet at a mutually convenient place to complete a pretrial stipulation to further delineate the legal and factual issues involved in the action.

7. Presumptive Trial Date. The above-captioned action shall presumptively be listed for trial on the May, 2006 trial list. Counsel are instructed to review the provisions of Local Rule LR 16.1.

8. Track I Designation. The above-captioned action is designated a Track I action pursuant to Local Rule LR 16.1.2.C.

9. Arbitration. The parties are advised of the availability of arbitration in certain cases pursuant to this court's Local Rule LR 16.2.

10. Contents of Pretrial Statements. As provided in Local Rule LR 16.1.4 of this court, the parties' pretrial statements shall set forth the information hereinafter described:

(a) Factual and Legal Contentions. A brief but full exposition shall be made of the legal theories that will be pursued at trial and a statement shall be made, in narrative form, of the material facts that will be offered at trial.

(b) Damages. An itemized list shall be set forth of all damages claimed, including the method of calculation and how damages will be proved.

(c) Witnesses. Each party shall list those witnesses to be called at trial other than those contemplated to be used for impeachment or rebuttal purposes.

(1) Witnesses shall be identified by their full names and addresses.

(2) Witnesses shall be separately listed and designated as to liability and damages.

(3) All witnesses who will testify as experts shall be designated as such. The report of each witness designated as an expert shall be attached to the pretrial statement. The testimony of an expert witness will be confined to those matters set forth in his or her report.

(4) A copy of each report containing the findings and conclusions of any physician who has treated or examined or who has been consulted in connection with any injury complained of and whom a party expects to call as a witness at trial must be attached to the party's pretrial statement. The testimony of each such witness will be confined to the scope of his or her report.

(d) Exhibits. Each party shall specifically identify and list each exhibit that will be offered at trial.

(1) Each exhibit must be identified by number or letter on the party's pretrial statement. Plaintiffs shall use numbers, and defendants shall use letters.

(2) The pretrial statement shall indicate the parties' agreement or disagreement as to the authenticity and admissibility of each exhibit.

(3) Each party shall designate every issue that he or she considers unusual in the case.

(e) Amendment of Pretrial Statements. The parties shall not amend or supplement their pretrial statements without leave of court.

(f) Sanctions. At trial, each party shall be limited to those factual and legal issues contained in his or her pretrial statement. All evidence, except evidence offered for impeachment, that does not relate to a factual or legal issue set forth in the pretrial statement or disclosed at the pretrial conference shall be excluded unless the parties otherwise agree or the court orders otherwise.

11. Additional Pretrial Requirements. In addition to the foregoing requirements relating to pretrial statements, the parties shall also comply with the following pretrial requirements:

(a) Discovery Depositions. A party intending to use a discovery deposition in its case-in-chief shall:

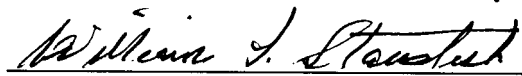

(1) Identify the deposition by the name of the deponent and date of his or her deposition;

(2) Designate to the court and to the opposing party the pages and lines that will be offered at trial; and

(3) Opposing counsel shall counter-designate those lines and pages of the same deposition that will be offered at trial.

(b) Settlement Negotiations. The parties shall extensively pursue settlement negotiations and advise the court of their status. At the conference scheduled by paragraph 5 hereof, the parties shall be prepared to discuss settlement and have the appropriate authority to settle the case.

(c) Trial Time. The parties shall be prepared to state at the conference scheduled by paragraph 5 hereof an estimate of the number of days required for trial.
